

Resolution 2026-1 of the Anderson Island Historical Society

The Anderson Island Historical Society (AIHS) Board of Directors commits the required $126,666 of cost share funds to support two thirds of the cost of the reroofing of the AIHS Johnson Farm historic structures Coop 1, Coop 2, Farmhouse, and Barn, through the AIHS Historic Reroofing Project. The AIHS Board of Directors fully endorses and supports the grant application to the Washington State Historical Society for the AIHS Historic Reroofing Project. This resolution was unanimously adopted by the AIHS Board of Directors through an email vote on 5/22/2026.

Signed by Robert Bedoll, President, AIHS 5/23/26.